

RFQ: What we need to know.

Critical questions to be sure you get the best price possible.

Domain Information

What is your current domain name where you would like your new website?

Do you have a login to access said domain name?

Are any other domain names pointing to the same site?

Current Hosting Information

Who are you currently hosted with?

Do you have access to the hosting platform? (cPanel, Plesk, etc)

How much are you currently paying for hosting?

Are you paying monthly or annually?

Do you currently have email accounts with the above domain name? If so, are they external accounts such as Google Suite or Office 365?

Additional Services

Will you need SEO services?

Can SEO be performed after your launch?

Do you need "Google my Business" and other Google services for organic SEO?

Does your site require you to be ADA Compliant?

Are there any other languages you'll need the site translated to?

Website Specifics

What is your ideal launch date?

What platform (CMS) are you currently running on? (WordPress, Joomla!®, etc.)

Do you have access to the back end of the above platform?

Are there any integrations with external databases or software?

What sites do you like? (So we can get a better feel for what you'd like your look and feel to be)

Approximately how many pages of content will you require?

Can you have all of your copy & images ready for a single delivery to us? (please attach images separately from content.)
